

Leslie Mulligan is a proven business leader and negotiation expert who has trained Fortune 500 companies, government agencies, non-profit organizations and universities around the world with Watershed Associates. Recent clients that Leslie has trained include Intel, NASA, Yale, Institute for Management Studies, Women in Technology Group, Chevron, Notre Dame Women Alumni Group, Power Conference for Women- MD, US Cellular, Halliburton, and the GSA and FDA, among others. She is a much in demand negotiation workshop instructor, and delivers Keynote addresses at global 1000 clients, including Nike.

Before joining Watershed Associates, Leslie spent 15 years in Silicon Valley in the high tech arena, leading sales and marketing teams. Leslie's career spans diverse roles, including product management, marketing, sales, business development and general management. She held executive roles at NVIDIA Corporation and Immersion Corporation in the telecom/mobile markets, and had senior roles in Wind River, Quantum and Raychem Corporations after moving to the SF Bay Area. Leslie served as an Officer in the USAF early in her career, as a Scientific Analyst in the AF Systems Command, Eglin AFB, Florida, as well as the Manpower Personnel Center, Pentagon, Washington, DC. Leslie holds an M.S. from Harvard University in Applied Mathematics, an M.B.A. from the University of West Florida, and a B.S. in Mathematics from the University of Notre Dame.